R-3: One Family Residential

Section 138-4.200 RE, R-1, R-2, R-3, R-4 and R-5 One Family Residential Districts

The RE, R-1, R-2, R-3 and R-4 one-family residential districts are designed to provide for one-family, low density dwelling sites and residentially related uses in keeping with the master plan of residential development in the City. The uses permitted by right and on special condition as conditional uses are intended to promote a compatible arrangement of land uses for homes, with the intent to keep neighborhoods relatively quiet and free of unrelated traffic noises.

The R-5 One Family Flex residential districts are intended to provide for one-family detached and attached moderate-density units in a variety of formats in keeping with the master plan of residential development. This includes detached single family, duplexes, multiplex (tri- and quadplexes) and detached bungalows. All residential units shall have an appearance that is similar to a single-family detached home when viewed from the front lot line. Neighborhoods in this district are intended to have a mix of building types, not a single building type.

MR: Mixed Residential Overlay

Section 138-4.204 MR Mixed Residential (Overlay) District

The mixed residential (overlay) district is designed to permit the construction of varied residential development types on parcels greater than 10 acres. The mixed residential (overlay) district is intended to result in higher quality development by providing design flexibility in lot size, lot configuration, and building type within densities allowed by the Master Land Use Plan and existing zoning; to result in better buffers from major thoroughfares for residential development; the protection of natural features, and the creation of site amenities such as open space or parks.
